

Argument preparation

Local solutions to global climate change and local congestion

The problem I am addressing is:

The solution I am going to write about is:

This is a carrot/ stick solution!*

I am going to write an article that is in favour/ against/ evenly balanced about this solution.*

*delete as appropriate

Advantages of this solution

(if you are writing against the solution you will need to ignore the advantages!)

Disadvantages of this solution

(if you are writing in favour of this solution you will need to ignore the disadvantages!)

Concluding comments

(State why you think what you do, or, if you are writing a balanced account, summarise the main point on each side!)

Now you can write your report using each box on this sheet as the notes for a paragraph of writing:

Introduction - advantages/disadvantages - concluding comments
